

Wednesday 26th

Everlasting God, we look towards you and seek your face so that we may glorify and work for you within our church and the wider Egham community.

Thursday 27th

Everlasting God, thank you for your forgiveness and that your arms of compassion reach far and wide. May we put our trust in you in all things.

Friday 28th

Lord we pray for any of our church family who are feeling alone, grieving over lose or struggling to cope. Thank you that you have promised to care for us in any and every situation. May they be filled with hope and encouragement today.

Saturday 29th

Loving Lord, we pray that you would bring this pandemic to an end. Give wisdom to each of us, discernment for those in authority, strength to the medical world and love towards those that are suffering.

Sunday 30th

Gracious God, give us expectant hearts and encourage us to pray for your big purposes in our lives and those in our church and community.

Monday 31st

Loving Father, draw near to each of us today so that we become more like you and less like ourselves for your glory.

Give thanks for

- The season of Spring
- Church opening for services
- The opportunities that we have as a church to reach out to our community
- Lives that have been transformed by His love and power

Bible Verse 2021

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8: 38-39

Prayer Diary May 2021

Our Vision

To be a loving and growing community released and empowered to join in God's transforming work in Egham and beyond

Saturday 1st

Holy God, we lift our hearts to you and humbly ask for your light to shine onto those areas of our life which are not the best. Help us change and become more like you each day.

Sunday 2nd

King of Kings, we ask that you would be glorified today, that those that have not trusted in you would come to know Jesus as their Saviour.

Monday 3rd

Heavenly Father, may we ask that you walk alongside each one of us in our personal quiet times today. Help us individually and collectively to be a people walking with you.

Tuesday 4th

Gracious Lord, thank you for all those that are married in our church. Thank you that you created such a union. May you be at the centre and strengthen the faith of each husband and wife.

Wednesday 5th

Almighty Lord, best Physician and friend, please comfort those that are poorly and strengthen those that are awaiting treatment. Walk alongside each one so that they may know your perfect peace.

Thursday 6th

Holy God, may we graciously undertake your purposes today. Guide our personal, and collective thoughts to achieve your mission and vision.

Friday 7th

Heavenly Lord, bless each of our Mission Partners. Bless their quiet times and assure them of your presence this day.

Saturday 8th

Loving God, bless our High Street. Help us, as a church, to walk alongside and show your love and purposes to all those with whom we pass, contact and meet today.

Sunday 9th

Merciful Saviour, may your name be lifted high today so that all entering our church, physically or virtually will draw close to you.

Monday 10th

Omnipresent God, be with our clergy, staff team, and volunteers as they serve the church and the wider community in Egham with love and hope.

Tuesday 11th

Heavenly Father, thank you for all the single people who attend St Johns. Bless their quiet time with you and walk closely with them this day.

Wednesday 12th

Living Lord Jesus, thank you for every senior church member. Bless their prayer life and all their activity which blesses you. Help them to be a witness to those around them that may not know you.

Thursday 13th

King of Kings, we remember our Queen and all those in the Royal Family that are grieving at this time. Please comfort them and may they know your loving presence in their lives today.

Friday 14th

Lord and Ruler of all, we remember our government as they continue to lead us out of lockdown. Inspire and encourage the Prime Minister and our government. We humbly seek the revival of our nation.

Saturday 15th

Compassionate Lord, we lift our hearts to you this day humbly repenting and seeking your forgiveness for the wrong that we have done. Purify our hearts and renew our minds today.

Sunday 16th

Gracious Lord, we thank you for the freedom of worship in our country, bless all those that have worked hard to make our services happen today whether virtually or in reality.

Monday 17th

Creator of all, please keep our children and families safe. Help us to show your love and support to them, from Playbox to Praise Tots, Footprints, Charged and all the other children's work that happens at St Johns.

Tuesday 18th

Dear Lord, thank you for our Men's groups and all that they do. Lord, would you encourage their fellowship and bless them as they walk alongside others in their workplace and our community. Let them show their faith by thought, word and action.

Wednesday 19th

Loving Father, thank you that each of us is created in your image, all equal in your sight and loved. May we share your gospel with all who we come into contact with today.

Thursday 20th

Dear Lord, thank you that our church doors are open again and that we can welcome people back to in person services. Thank you for all the work that the tech team have been doing over this last year.

Friday 21st

Gracious Lord, we count our blessings for all midweek service and ministries that are starting to operate again. Prepare our hearts as we move from virtual to meeting up in person.

Saturday 22nd

Protector of all, we pray for those in Iceland, St Vincents and elsewhere where people have been displaced either through natural or man made . Show us where we can help by thought, prayer, word or action.

Sunday 23rd

Holy God, bless all of our church activities this day. May we ask that those who have not come through our doors physically may choose to join our virtual presence and come to know the presence of the Lord Jesus in their life this day.

Monday 24th

Omnipresent God, thank you for our recent APCM and as the PCC meet again in this new term, may you give them your discernment and wisdom. Be present in all thoughts and undertakings so that your purposes will be made known.

Tuesday 25th

Heavenly Father, by the power of your Holy Spirit, may we ask for your strengthening and encouragement in all your work amongst the students, the Christian Unions, and in the lives of all those who attend college and universities.
