Preaching Journey 2023

Verse for the Year

As the effects of the last few years continue to rumble on, a timely reminder for Christians to "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer." Romans 12.12. Our hope is not in vain, our patience will not go unrewarded, and our prayers are surely heard by God. Let us persevere.

Parables of Jesus

Continuing the series in the All Age services to get to grips with the teaching parables that Jesus used to share with people the heart and character of God. His teaching was to reinforce what God's people had already experienced of God throughout history, but now Jesus told them more about the Kingdom of God in ways in which both the 'common' people and the 'ruling/educated classes' could hear, but as Jesus warns, 'not all have ears, not all see'. A good warning to all of us, to ask the Holy Spirit to give us ears to hear, hearts to receive these teachings.

Stewardship Season: Take my Life and Let it be

We sang hymn 'Take my life and let it be' at the 9am Service on 16 July and it felt like my searching for a focus for Stewardship Season landed. I read this later: The hymn above focuses not so much on their giving themselves to God (there is some of this, and rightly so, especially in the second half of the hymn) but on their asking God to take them. Though the Bible insists on both, God's taking is infinitely more reliable than our giving. When singers of this hymn make their request sincerely, they should expect God in Christ to grant it, even if it not be in the way they expect! May God 'take our lives' this Stewardship Season

Vision and Values Reset

We have focussed many times on our Mission Statement and many of us have taken it on board that as a church we are here to love God, love one another and love our community. It feels right to spend time swelling on our vision statement and our values in this next season.

Advent and Christmas - In Real Life (IRL) - Series plan available

From Pia – the author of our Advent/Christmas Series

The "Christmas story" has grown so clichéd and confused with myth and tradition that it can be easy to miss, as we approach Advent, that we are reflecting on the coming of God in human form. As we hear about Jesus' life from Bethlehem birth to Jerusalem crucifixion, we are seeing God walking on the earth and living amongst us. Each time we encounter Jesus in the Gospels, we have the awesome opportunity to see God face to face and ask what those accounts teach about God.

Most people, especially due to Covid, have experienced the difference between a distant encounter and one in real life. We have a God who was not satisfied with a relationship at arm's length but wanted to be with His people face to face.

This sermon series touches on a number of stories from the life of Jesus and we are taking time to reflect on them to show us more about who God is in the flesh; His struggles and joys. These stories, from over 2000 years ago, can help and teach us in our own walk with God today.

Verse for the Year 2024

James 3.17:

*But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure;
then peace-loving, considerate, submissive,
full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.*
